K Khum Phaya Resort & Spa

Khum Phaya, from old Northern Thai meaning "King's Palace", is a place that is rich in fine design blending perfectly with its natural surroundings. Based on the Lanna traditions of Northern Thailand the buildings are partially constructed from 80-year-old teak with detailing hand-carved by local craftsmen. This unique resort delivers a friendly traditional Lanna style right in the heart of Chiang Mai.

Built on an intimate scale, as are all Centara Boutique Collection properties, the resort features 85 luxurious guestrooms and villas, all furnished in Lanna style, and each with their own extensive private balcony or terrace from where views of the verdant gardens and the canals meandering through the grounds can be enjoyed.

Living

The 46 Lanna Deluxe rooms are located on the upper floor and can accommodate up to three adults or two adults and one child in a spacious area of 40sqm. The 34 Lanna Deluxe Pool Access rooms are the same size and are located on the ground floor, offering direct access to the resort's lagoon-style swimming pool straight from the room terrace.

Four Lanna Villas with an area of 92 sqm include a private outdoor pavilion for spa and massage with an outdoor jacuzzi and a separate herbal steam room. In its 290 sqm area, The Royal Lanna Pool Villa offers three king bedrooms, a private outdoor pavilion for spa and massage including outdoor jacuzzi and steam room, a private swimming pool and a lawn with two outdoor dining areas.

All rooms feature individually controlled air-conditioning, large private bathroom with bath and separate rain shower, flat-screen TV, an in-room safe, mini-bar, tea and coffee making facilities, high-speed internet access and IDD line telephone.
